Dear Year 11

Your English teachers want you to excel. We want you to realise your potential and we know that your English grades are the gateway to the future that you want. We know you and your parents share this hope for you.

As well as doing your best in your lessons, your regular homework, and intervention, you can maximise your opportunity with focused and regular English revision. There are lots of ways we are helping you to do this.

Here's a reminder:

1. Free Tassomai!

Practice makes permanent.

Use your daily quizzing to build your memory and understand your gaps.

The more often you do it, the less you have to do!

<https://www.tassomai.com/>

2. Free GCSEpod!

Target your revision.

Watch the videos you need to build your knowledge. If you know you have a gap GCSEpod can fill it.

3. Free Poetry

Use your peach-coloured 'Unseen Poetry' booklet for fast and regular practice.

Use the 'Love and Relationships' cluster in your anthology to practice responding to unseen poems.

4.  Bronte Macbeth FULL FILM .mp4

Free Bronte Lecture on Macbeth

Watch again!

Make more notes, gain more ideas.

Practice writing what you know.

5.  Macbeth Resources

Free Macbeth analysis videos.

Be guided through different extracts, how to explode quotations, and writing up your ideas.

There are videos on:

- Witchcraft and the Supernatural
- Macbeth's Guilt
- The relationship between Macbeth and Lady Macbeth
- Ambition
- Chaos and Disorder
- Women
